

EBooks and Downloadable Audio Books

EAudio Books Through WILBOR Consortium

You can check out eAudio books from your library at your home or office! As part of the WILBOR consortium, the Clive Public Library is offering eAudio books for its patrons to download and listen.

The eAudio books can be downloaded from any computer that is connected to the Internet, at any hour of the day.

From a website you can browse or search for a title you'd like to listen to, and log in. Your library card is the "key". Just log in with your library card number, and download the title to your computer. Then listen to the book on your computer or transfer it to an mp3 player, I-Pod, or smart phone.

WILBOR's collection has fiction and nonfiction titles, as well as books for children and teens. Bestsellers and classics, history and humor, business and self help--you'll find them all in WILBOR.

Up to three books can be checked out at one time. EAudio books can be checked out for one week.

Click here to search for titles

Fiction and Non-fiction EBooks Through WILBOR Consortium

You can check out eBooks from your library at your home or office! As part of the WILBOR consortium, the Clive Public Library is offering Books for its patrons. The eBooks can be downloaded from any computer that is connected to the Internet, at any hour of the day. From a website you can browse or search for a title you'd like to listen to, and log in. Your library card is the "key". Just log in with your library card number and download the title to your computer, eReader, or smart phone. Up to three books can be checked out at one time. eBooks are able to be checked out for 14 days and you can "return" them early.

Click here for a list of compatible devices

Click here to search for titles

Non-fiction and Classic EBooks Through NetLibrary

Clive Public Library has made it possible to access a wide range of research, reference and reading materials online. eBooks are easy to use. They are accessible from any location -- the library, home or office. Searching them is fast and efficient. Stop by the library to open an account then use Clive Public Library's collection of electronic books from home, office or wherever you have Internet access.

Login with your library card